

ANDRITZ provides the missing link for quality MDF fiber production in India.

ANDRITZ offers complete process solutions for the Panelboard and Pulp & Paper Industry. Numerous installations worldwide prove our position as the technical and technological market leader in MDF Fiber Preparation Systems. ANDRITZ supplies complete, high quality Front End Packages, including Debarking, Chipping, Raw Material Handling, Screening, Chip Washing Systems and Pressurized Systems, with low energy consumption, as well as laboratory scale fiber preparations. Our installations can operate with any kind of wood and from annual fibers such as bagasse, straw, etc. ANDRITZ supports customers in India with service, technology, spare parts and upgrades of existing installations in order to increase capacity.

We are looking forward to welcoming you to:

Top Level MDF-Production at indiaWOOD
Bangalore International
Exhibition Center
February 10-14, 2012
Hall I, upper level